St Angela's is a unique and exceptional school. As one of the few schools recently judged as Outstanding by Ofsted you should consider this post if you are committed to ensure our excellent students are constantly challenged to develop personally as well as academically.

The staff of St Angela's are first and foremost subject experts who are hard working, forward thinking and a well paid and cared for staff that demonstrate their outstanding nature each day.

If you have the skills to be part of that team you will need:

- be able to lead a year group to develop the character of each student and ensure the academic success of all learners
- a proven track record of excellent teaching and the ability and/or desire to teach to A-Level. (dependant on subject above)
- the subject knowledge, energy and passion to work in an Outstanding school.
- excellent interpersonal skills with children and adults as well as a good sense of humour.
