

SCHOOL MEDICAL WELFARE OFFICER

GLPC4 £25,676 (actual salary) (No medical training) or GLPC PO1 £34,383 (actual salary) (previous formal medical training)

Have you ever considered a career in education where you can use your skills to support schools to make a difference to children's life across Newham and beyond?

St Angela's is a unique and exceptional school. As one of the few schools recently judged as Outstanding by OfSTED you should consider this post if you are a committed and self-motivated team player with a can-do attitude, who is solution focused and passionate about making a difference. The support staff of St Angela's are first and foremost hard working, forward thinking and cared for staff that demonstrate their outstanding nature each day.

We have an exciting opportunity for an experienced School Medical Welfare officer who is looking for a new challenge.

- co-ordinate and manage the medical room
- administer medication
- provide medical advice and guidance to students and staff alike
- deliver training as appropriate
- provide general medical assistance at point of need
- oversee students with specific needs

The post is term time only, 36 hours per week. Typical working hours are 8.30am – 4.30pm.
